

Page references followed by fig
indicate figures.

- Abella, Rosalie, 246
Aboriginal constitutional culture, 10
Aboriginal people, 11, 38, 46
Aboriginal rights, 38, 198
Ackerman, Bruce, 39, 224
Addington, Richard, 148
Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission, 114
Afghan prisoners controversy:
background, 114–15; dispute over production of documents in, 158–62;
government position on breach of privileges in, 163;
opposition parties' motion on breach of privileges in,
162–3; Speaker Milliken's rule on production of documents on, 163–4 Ajzenstat, Janet: on balance of powers, 151, 151n182; on broad range of political ideas in U.S., 68n232; on Canadian Constitution, 43; on independence of legislature, 156; on Mill's paper on representative government, 232; on system of “admirable checks,” 187;
on U.S. and Canadian political culture, 44
Alarie, Benjamin, 244
Alberta: concern with federal policy on natural resource sector, 200n118; oil price fixing in,
195; position on consultative elections, 220
Alexander, Gregory, 40, 41
Alito, Samuel, 147n164, 257, 258
Allen, G.W., 186
Almond, Gabriel, 12
American Revolution, 148–9
Amnesty International, 115
Anson, William, 122, 141n129
Articles of Confederation, 33, 34,
142, 143. See also U.S.
Constitution
Ashcraft, Richard, 129
Atwood, Margaret, 291
Aucoin, Peter, 81
Australia: parliamentary practice in,
93n98, 96
Australian Senate: appointments to, 207; in legislative process, role of, 210; as model for Canadian Senate, 179–80;
party division in, 207–8
Axworthy, Thomas, 245
Bach, Stanley, 210
Bagehot, Walter: on balance of powers, 140; on Cabinet government, 139; on curiosity of Parliament, 114;
The English Constitution,
89, 139, 140; influence of,
153; on separation of power,
118
Baird, John, 76
Bakan, Joel, 73
Baker, Dennis, 155, 155n213, 156, 157–8
Bakvis, Herman, 90
Baldwin, Robert, 61, 184
Bateman, Thomas, 90–1
Baudouin, Jean-Louis, 266
Beaudoin, Gerald, 73
Beck, Adam, 70, 71
Bédard, Pierre, 60n187, 156
Bentham, Jeremy, 135n106
Biden, Joseph, 255n109
Binder, Sarah, 209
Binnie, Ian, 277
Birenbaum, Jordan, 46n115

- Blackstone, William: on authority of British Parliament, 50; on balance between monarchy, aristocracy, and democracy, 29; comparison of House of Lords and House of Commons, 135n106; on judicial power, 135n107; on Montesquieu's view of separation of powers, 135; on prerogative power, 136–7
- Blair, Tony, 88, 90, 170
- Bland, Richard, 52–3
- Blatchford, Christie, 275
- Bliss, Michael, 94, 94n99
- Bloc Québécois: political status of, 94; as potential ally of Conservative Party, 97; support of Liberal-NDP coalition by, 76, 93–4, 97
- Bogoch, Bryna, 261, 277
- Boisvert, Yves, 272, 275, 277
- Boivin, Françoise, 274, 277
- Bolingbroke, Henry St. John, 121, 156–7
- Bork, Robert, 240, 248, 253–4
- Borrows, John, 11
- Brazeau, Patrick, 176
- Brenner, Donald, 164
- British colonists in North American, 51–2, 53–4
- British Empire. See United Kingdom
- British North America Act (1867), 63
- Brougham, Henry, 110
- Brown, George, 187, 190
- Brown, Gordon, 168, 169, 170
- Brun, Henri, 109
- Bryce, James, 31, 65, 192, 207
- Buckley, F. H., 143n143
- Burke, Edmund: on aristocracy, 149; complaint about British governance, 292; on conciliation with America, 54; liberalism of, 292–3; Reflections on the French Revolution, 292; on regulations over affairs of American colonies, 52n145, 53; on role of aristocracy in monarchy, 182–3
- Bush, Geroge W., 83, 88, 117, 148, 168
- Byng, Julian, Governor General, 95, 113
- Cairns, Alan, 12, 15
- Caldeira, Gregory, 257, 280
- Calgary Herald*, 79, 100, 102, 104–5, 106, 261
- Cameron, David, 109
- Campbell, Colin, 194
- Canada: British connections, 22–3; calls for regulation of prerogative power, 170–1; characteristic of federalism adopted in, 25, 28; constitutional reform initiatives, 94n99, 195; constitutional tradition in, 6; development of constitutional order of, 65; divisions of power in, 64; establishment of federal government, 63; foreign relations, 64, 64n211; general election date in, 74n2; labour movement in, 66–7; legislative power in, 25; nature of federalism in, 69; patterns in imperial governance, 47; political culture, 43–4, 47–8; political system of, 31; popular perception of government, 98–9; possibilities of political change, 65; power structure in, 81–2; principles of parliamentary democracy,

- 160; property rights regime, 33; roots of social democracy, 68; socialist movement in, 67; as "warrior nation," 118n22
- Canada Evidence Act, 159, 160
- Canada West Foundation, 200
- Canadian Bar Association (CBA), 242, 252
- Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms (1982), 17–18, 31–3
- Canadian civilization, 46
- Canadian constitutional culture:
 - Aboriginal origins of, 45–7;
 - American influence on, 6, 23, 294; basic principles of, 160; British roots of, 291;
 - civic humanism in, 44–5; in comparative perspective, 6, 11–12; debates on separation of powers, 117–18;
 - democratic nature of, 290;
 - direction for further development, 291–2;
 - distinctive characteristics of, 8, 9–10; Harper government's shift of, 290, 291; ideology and, 42–3;
 - middle-class values and, 9;
 - openness of, 293; paradoxes of, 293–4; problem of change, 22–3; problem of definition of, 9–10, 11;
 - property rights in, 38–9;
 - prospects for development, 293–5; Senate reform and change in, 180; strong state tradition in, 50, 68; studies of, 5, 13–14, 20, 43–4; Tory touch thesis, 42–3
- Canadian identity, 3, 7–8, 14n53, 18
- Cardwell, Edward, 190
- Carleton, Guy, 56
- Carter, Stephen, 254n106
- Chafetz, Josh, 209
- Charles I, King of England, 49, 120–1
- Charles II, King of England, 129
- Charlottetown Accord (1992), 228
- Charron, Louise, 246
- Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 73
- checks and balances: system of, 188
- Cheney, Dick, 147, 148
- Chitty, Joseph, 169
- Choudhry, Sujit, 7, 250
- Chrétien, Jean, 199n114, 246
- Cicero, 125n51
- Civil Code for Lower Canada, 28
- Clarity Act, The (Bill C-20), 97n116
- Clark, Charles, 58
- Clarkson, Adrienne, 97
- Clement, W.P., 153
- coalition government: Canadian newspaper coverage of
 - debates on, 79, 100–8; lack of tradition in Canada, 78–9;
 - limits of, 96; Thomas Mulcair on, 106–7
- Collins, Paul, 257
- colonial Canada: conflict between Crown and assemblies, 59; controversy over disposal of public lands, 62; debates on constitutional design of, 149–50; division of power in, 61, 64; Durham report on responsible government, 59–60; evolution of trade and foreign relations, 62–3; position of Protestant church, 62, 62n200; principles of governance of, 60–1; question of clergy reserves in, 62, 62n200; representative assemblies in, 55; role of institutions in, 47, 48n120; tradition of self-government, 51, 61–2;

- unification of Upper and Lower Canada, 59–60
- colonial law, 58, 58n180
- colonial system: concept of, 52n142
- Colvin, Richard, 115
- Comartin, Joe, 265, 271
- common good: idea of, 125n51
- common law presumptions, 29n20
- comparative constitutional law, 6–7
- Confederation debates, 186–7
- Conservative Party of Canada:
 - campaign against coalition government, 99–100, 103, 108; caucus members
 - engagement with media, 103n151; on change of government through election, 98–9; constitutional initiatives of, 5; election platform on limiting terms for senators, 212n174; on nominations to Supreme Court, 251; political ads against Stéphane Dion, 99
- Constitution Act, 1982. See Constitution of Canada
- Constitution Act of 1791, 58, 182–3
- Constitution Act of 1867: absence of reference to Cabinet in, 151; on authority of federal government, 27–8; on authority of the Crown, 152; on design of Parliament of Canada, 152, 155; on division between national and provincial legislative power, 27; on education rights of religious minorities, 28; on executive, legislative, and judicial powers, 152; as model of "mixed constitution," 29; on power of provincial governments, 28; on property rights, 28–9; reflection of British system in, 27
- Constitutional Amendment Bill, The (Bill C-60), 196–7
- constitutional culture: conception of, 10–11; custodians of, 16; definitions of, 12, 14, 14n50, 15, 15n55; differences between U.S. and Canadian, 11–12, 25–6, 41, 47; vs. political culture, 12; in relation to social and economic power, 16; role of norms in, 15–16; transitional nature of, 17, 290
- constitutionalism, 227–8
- constitutional law, 13, 13n49, 72–3
- constitutional reform initiatives, 4, 5n8, 6, 195, 200–1
- constitutional rights: popular understanding of, 17–18
- Constitution of Canada: amendment process, 171–2, 172n285, 199, 199n115, 224; as Enlightenment constitution, 43; main sections of, 198; nature of amending formulae, 227, 228; origin of, 24; scholarship on constitutional design, 43–4; on separation of powers, 118; U.S. Constitution as model for, 24–5, 25n4
- consultative elections, 218–19, 220–1, 226
- Cooper, Barry, 104
- Co-operative Commonwealth Federation (CCF), 67
- Corder, Hugh, 282
- Côté, Suzanne, 5n9, 239n27, 241
- Cotler, Irwin, 246, 275
- Craig, James Henry, 60n187
- crime control model: vs. due process model, 18

- Cromwell, Thomas, 39, 239n27
 Crossman, Richard, 89
 Crowley, Brian Lee, 68
 Crown-in-Parliament, 125, 125n54
 customs union, 27, 27n14
- Dahl, Robert, 83
 Davis, Richard, 256
 Declaration of Independence (1776), 53
Democracy in America (Tocqueville), 12
 Deschamps, Marie, 273
 Diamond, Martin, 123
 Dicey, Albert Venn: on authority of Parliament, 141–2; on British North America Act, 71, 72; on British parliamentary supremacy, 30–1, 71; criticism of, 24–5; on division of legislative power, 27; interpretation of Montesquieu by, 140, 141; on law of constitution, 141; The Law of the Constitution, 24; on origin of Canadian Constitution, 25n4; on prerogative power, 141; on property and power, 37
- Dickson, Brian, 32
 Dickson, Brian, Justice, 153
 dictatorship, 126n57
 Dion, Stéphane: on Canadian government system, 103n149; defeat in 2008 election, 76; idea of coalition government, 76, 95; televised address of, 102–3; unpopularity of, 108
- Dorchester, Guy Carleton, 149
 Dosanjh, Ujal, 115
 Douglas, Stephen, 204
 Dufferin, Frederick Temple Blackwood, Lord, 111
- Duffy, Mike, 176
 Dulany, Daniel, 53
 Duncan, Linda, 105
 Dunkin, Christopher, 190
 Durham, John George Lambton, Lord, 59, 150–1
 Durham Report, 59–60, 60–1, 62n200
- Edmonton Journal*: on Canada's parliamentary system, 101–2, 107; on coalition government, 106n174; dominant narratives, 103, 105; as leading Alberta's newspaper, 79; qualitative analysis of stories published in, 100; reports on parliamentary debates, 107
- Edwards, George C., 91
 Eisenmann, Charles, 133 electoral college, 84
 Elgin, James Bruce, Lord, 61, 185
 English Bakehouse Act (1863), 67
 English Constitution: Bolingbroke on, 121–2; Cabinet as efficient secret of, 139; dominant conception of, 120, 121; Montesquieu on, 120; question of written, 169
English Constitution (Bagehot), 89
 English constitutional law, 71–2
- factionalism: origin and principles of, 34
- Farnsworth, Stephen, 260
 Favreau, Guy, 172n285
 Federal Court of Appeal's inference on Omar Khadr case, 270n181
- federalism, 35, 69–70
Federalist Papers, 34, 35
 Ferejohn, John, 14
 Fielding, William Stevens, 72
 Fish, Morris, 234

- Fisher, Andrew, 96
 Flaherty, Jim, 269
 Flanagan, Tom: on benign dictatorship, 81; on change of government, 79, 94, 98; on conservative alliance, 97; on proposal of coalition government, 77, 94, 95
 Fletcher, Frederick, 69
 Fletcher, Joseph, 250
 Foley, Michael, 90, 92
 Forbath, William, 66
 Forsey, Eugene, 94, 95–6, 95n106
 Forsey, Helen, 107
 Fortas, Abe, 256
 Fox, Charles-James, 149, 150n175, 182
 “fragment” theory, 41–2
 Frank, Jerome, 250n84
 Franklin, Benjamin, 53
 Franks, C.E.S., 109
 Frum, David, 247
 Frye, Northrop, 3, 9–10
- Galt, Alexander Tilloch, 62, 68
 Gascon, Clément, 5n9, 239n27, 241
 Gibbins, Roger, 21n79, 178, 179, 200n118
 Gibson, James, 257, 258, 263, 280
Globe and Mail, 116, 265, 267, 268, 269, 276
 Glorious Revolution (1688), 122
 Goguen, Robert, 268n174
 Goldsmith, Jack, 148n171
 Gompers, Samuel, 66–7
 Gore, Al, 83
 governor general of Canada: authority and responsibilities of, 109–11, 112–13
 Grant, George, 7, 9, 44, 70n240
 Green, Andrew, 244
 Grenville, William Wyndham, 55n158, 57, 149
 Grey, Henry George, Lord, 140
 Grossman, Joel, 239n28
 Gunter, Lorne, 107
 Gwyn, William, 134, 157n220
- Habermas, Jürgen, 228
 Hallam, Henry, 138–9, 139n120, 166
 Hamilton, Alexander, 34, 86
 Harper, Stephen: on accountability of justices of Supreme Court, 234; address to the nation, 102; admiration of U.S. government system, 4, 4n5; admittance of eligibility problem in Nadon nomination, 235n7; on Americans' monopoly on democracy, 176; on application of election law, 74n2; appointments to Senate by, 175, 176; attacks on Stéphane Dion, 105; comparison of Australian and Canadian Senates, 179n15; on conservative alliance, 97; dislike the Charter of Rights, 251; on elected Senate, 207; on federal government, 24; on judicial activism, 251; leadership style, 92–3; on Liberal-NDP coalition government, 20, 77, 78, 105–6, 108n181; memorandum of understanding between opposition parties and, 164–5; on parliamentary system of Canada, 74, 74n2; perception of role of Prime Minister, 79; as policy officer in Reform Party, 247; on power structure in Canada, 81; on principles of Canadian democracy, 77;

- proposal of letter to Governor General on government coalition, 97–8; on qualities of judges, 252; on relations with Bloc Québécois, 97–8; requests to prorogue Parliament, 77–8, 111, 116; Senate reform initiatives, 177–9, 202, 225; shift of Canadian constitutional culture by, 20; Supreme Court nominations, 5, 5n9, 239n27; testimony before Special Senate Committee on Senate Reform, 212n176
- Harper government: Bill C-43 on consultative elections, 213–14; constitutional initiatives, 3–4; economic policy, 75; embracement of public interviews of Supreme Court nominees, 251–2; introduction of Bill S-4 limiting terms of new senators, 212; introduction of Senate Reform Act (Bill C-7), 214; plans for Senate reform, 21, 175, 211–12; position on coalition government, 93; on production of legally available information, 159, 163; questions to Supreme Court of Canada on Senate reform, 215, 218, 218n198; refusal to release documents on Afghan detainees, 117; versions of Senate tenure bills, 213
- “Harper’s new rules,” 78, 79, 98
- Harris, B.V., 171, 175
- Hartz, Louis, 41–2, 42n95
- Hausegger, Lori, 244
- Heard, Andrew, 109, 173n287, 216, 217, 217n195, 238n20
- Heller, Hermann, 15, 16
- Hennigar, Matthew, 244
- Hill, Anita, 254n106
- Hogg, Peter, 118, 153, 217, 262, 263, 265
- Holdsworth, William, 131n85, 134
- Holzman-Gazit, Yifat, 261, 277
- Horowitz, Gad, 42
- House of Commons of Canada: authority and privileges, 159, 159n230; control over length of sessions, 112
- House of Lords: judicatory power of, 121; loss of veto power, 192; plans to reform, 211n172; rejection of bills by, 192
- Howe, Joseph, 60
- Hunter, John, 222
- Iacobucci, Frank, 162, 164
- Ignatieff, Michael, 108
- indigenous law, 11
- In re Sealed Case, 146
- Israeli high court appointments, 277
- Iverson, John, 234
- Jackson, Robert, 87
- James I, King of England, 48
- Jarvis, Mark D., 81
- Jay, John, 34
- Jean, Michaëlle, 76, 78, 108–10, 110–11, 112–13
- Jefferson, Thomas, 19
- Jennings, W. Ivor, 225
- Joli-Coeur, André, 221
- judicial activism, 250, 250n84
- judicial nomination hearings, 21–2
- judicial nomination process: in Canada, media coverage of, 261; “Missouri plan,” 281, 281n239; in Ontario, 281; “probable” and “possible

- donors," 243n42; scholarly studies of, 260–1; screening of candidates by nomination commissions, 281; in South Africa, 282; in United Kingdom, 283–4
- Judicial Service Commission (JSC), 282, 283
- jurisdiction stripping, 73
- Jutras, Daniel, 222
- Karakatsanis, Andromache, 239n27, 262*fig.*, 264, 267, 269, 275–6
- Keith, Arthur Berriedale, 96
- Kelley, Stéphane, 44
- Kennedy, W.P.M., 29, 178
- Khadr, Omar, 167, 174, 270
- King, William Lyon Mackenzie, 95, 113
- King of England: authority of, 48, 122; power sharing with House of Commons, 122–3; prerogative power of, 48–9
- Knopff, Rainer, 79, 94, 98, 237, 248, 249
- Kobernick, Carolyn, 160–1, 160n232, 163
- Kramnick, Isaac, 45
- Kunz, F.A., 187, 193
- labour movement, 66–7
- Labour Party (UK), 168
- La Fontaine, Louis-Hippolyte, 61
- La Forest, G. V. (Gerard Vincent), 153, 154
- Lahey, Kathleen, 274
- Lamer, Antonio, 11
- La Presse*: analysis of stories published in, 100, 261; on coalition government, 104; on gender politics, 274; on Moldaver's unilingualism, 271–2; on parliamentary traditions, 102; patriotism narrative, 106; as Quebec's largest-circulation, 79
- Laurier, Wilfrid, 72
- law clerks of the Supreme Court, 249–50
- Law of the Constitution, The* (Dicey), 24
- Layton, Jack, 98, 171
- Lazare, Daniel, 65
- League for Social Reconstruction, 68–9
- Lee, Derek, 160n232, 162
- Leeson, Howard, 195
- Lefroy, A.H.F., 30, 38, 153, 153n198
- Legislative Council: debates on principles of formation of, 182–3, 183n25, 184, 185–6; disadvantages of elective principle for, 187, 187n52; effectiveness of, 183; reputation of, 184; U.S. Senate as model for, 184–5. See also Senate of Canada
- Le Journal de Montreal*, 261, 271, 272, 274
- Levinson, Sanford, 86, 206
- L'Heureux-Dubé, Claire, 164, 252
- Liberal-NDP coalition, 75, 93
- Lichter, Robert, 260
- Lilburne, John, 124
- Lincoln, Abraham, 204
- Lind, Michael, 66n218
- Lipset, Seymour Martin, 18
- Lochner, Joseph, 67
- Lochner case, 67
- Locke, John: on executive power, 125–7, 128–9; on federative power, 126; on people's right to remove power by force, 129; on prerogative power, 127–8, 128n65, 128n66, 129, 130, 167; on relationship between King and Parliament, 130; on role

- of legislative assemblies, 127, 127n58; Second Treatise of Government, 125, 129; on separation of powers, 124, 125, 125n50; on supremacy of legislative power, 125, 125n53
- Lockean liberalism, 42, 42n95
- Lolme, Jean Louis de, 49, 50, 137, 156
- Lougheed, Peter, 195
- Loughlin, Martin, 125n51
- Low, Sidney, 89
- loyalists, 42, 43, 43n101

- Macdonald, John A.: appointments to Senate by, 191; on authority and design of Senate, 188–9; on nominations to Legislative Council: 185–186; on possibility of deadlock in Senate, 189–90; on protection of rights of minorities, 28; requests to prorogue parliament, 111, 117n18
- Macfarlane, Emmett, 249
- MacKay, Peter, 162, 163, 234, 241, 265
- MacKay, Robert, 184, 187n52, 191, 193, 194
- Madison, James: on Articles of Confederation, 142–3; on design of republican government, 35–6; on enforcement of laws, 143n140; on executive power, 143; on factionalism, 34; on federalism, 35; influence of, 155; interpretation of Montesquieu by, 143–4; on ratification of U.S. Constitution, 34, 34n52; on separation of powers, 86; on U.S. Senate, 205, 206
- Mahoney, Kathleen, 264
- Makin, Kirk, 280
- Malleson, Kate, 285
- Mallory, James, 112
- Mancke, Elizabeth, 47, 48
- Manfredi, Christopher, 40n86
- Manin, Bernard, 131n86
- Manning, Preston, 201, 202, 247
- Mansfield, Harvey, 126, 155–6, 156n214
- Marshall, John, 64n210
- Marshall, Thurgood, 254
- Martin, Don, 105
- Martin, Lawrence, 100
- Martin, Paul, 98, 245–6
- Maseres, Francis, 55
- May, Erskine, 78n25, 159n230
- Mayhew, David, 209, 210
- McArthur, Duncan, 183
- McClung, John, 248
- McEvoy, John, 199n114, 217n196
- McKay, Ian, 118n22
- McLachlin, Beverley, 234, 235, 252
- McRae, Kenneth, 43
- media coverage of Supreme Court of Canada nomination hearings: amount of coverage, 262*fig*; characteristic of, 279–80; gender controversy, 273–5; main topics, 273*fig*; newspaper selection for study of, 261; politics in, 268–9; tone of reference to the Prime Minister, 269, 270*fig*; tone of reporting on personality of judges, 277, 278*fig*; via television and Internet channels, 261n144, 269
- Meech Lake Accord, 200–1, 228
- Mehta, Uday Singh, 292

- Meighen, Arthur, 95, 113
Mendes, Errol, 171
Military Police Complaints
 Commission Inquiry, 115
Mill, John Stuart, 188, 232–3
Milliken, Peter, 163
Milne, Cheryl, 173
mixed constitution: model of, 29
mixed regime, 123–4
Moldaver, Michael, 239n27, 262fig,
 264, 271, 275, 280
Molgat-Cosgrove Report, 212
Montesquieu, Charles de Secondat: on aristocratic rule, 130; on British parliamentary practice, 293; on concert of powers, 133, 133n97;
 doctrines of powers developed by, 134; on English constitutional system, 131, 131n85;
 influence of, 142;
 interpretations of doctrines of, 143n144; on judicial power, 131–2, 131n90,
 132n92; on legislative body, 132–3; on power of monarch, 133; on separation of powers, 120, 131,
 131n86, 132, 132n91,
 133–4; The Spirit of the Laws, 15, 131, 134
Morissette, Nathaëlle, 272
Morton, F.L., 237
Morton, Ted, 248, 249
Mulcair, Thomas, 106, 275
Mulrone, Brian, 243
Murphy, Jessica, 276
Murray, James, 55, 181

Nadon, Marc: as Federal Court judge,
 271; involvement in Omar
 Khadr case, 269–70;
 newspaper reporting on,
 262fig, 276; personality of,
 276; question of eligibility of appointment to Supreme Court, 234–5, 239n27, 264, 277; on separation of powers, 268n174
Nedelsky, Jennifer, 36
Nelson, Eric, 83
New Democratic Party (NDP), 165 newspapers. See individual newspapers
Nicholls, Gerry, 251
Nicholson, Rob, 117, 162, 163
North American Free Trade
 Agreement (NAFTA), 33,
 41

Obama, Barack, 148, 148n171
O’Brien, W.E., 71
O’Connor, Sandra Day, 253, 257
Ontario: Act Respecting Bakeshops, 67; confiscation of rights to property, 71; program for public hydroelectric power in, 70–1; property rights and private interests in, 71
Ontario Court of Appeal, 244 order, 46, 46n115
Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC), 195
Ostberg, C.L., 244
Ostrom, Vincent, 144
Oxley, Zoe, 258, 259

Paley, William, 50, 137, 138
Paris, Treaty of (1763), 55 parliamentary government, 156–7 parliamentary privilege, 165, 166 parliamentary sovereignty, 49, 95 parliamentary supremacy: idea of,
 30–1
Parliament of Canada: 2008
 prorogation, 78, 78n25,
 108–9, 111; 2009

- prorogation, 116–17, 117n17, 158; John Macdonald's call to prorogue, 117n18. See also House of Commons of Canada; Senate of Canada
- Parliament of England: authority of, 49, 51–2, 53n152; characteristic of, 50; confrontation with colonial authorities, 53, 53n152; government accountability as main function of, 161, 161n235; Lilburne's idea of unicameral, 124; passing of Stamp Act, 51; supremacy over Crown, 48, 49–50, 49n128; trade and tax regulations, 52, 52n145
- Parti Québécois, 195
- Pasquino, Pasquale, 125n54, 130
- Payne, Sebastien, 128n66
- Perlman, Selig, 66
- Pious, Richard, 145
- Pitt, William, 149, 182
- Plaxton, Michael, 279n227
- political culture: in Canada, 13n47; vs. constitutional culture, 12; definition of, 12–13
- Posner, Eric A., 85n57
- Post, Robert, 13
- Potter, Janice, 43, 43n101
- Prentice, Jim, 103
- prerogative governance, 145
- prerogative power, 136–7, 167, 168, 170–1, 172–3, 174. See also royal prerogative
- presidential communications privilege, 146
- ‘presidentialization’ of politics, 89
- President of the United States: authority in wartime, 87–8; claims to secrecy, 148; criticism of method of election of, 83; impact on public opinion, 91–2; political power of, 86–8, 87n66, 91–2; popular perception of power of, 89, 91; power of prime minister vs. power of, 91–2; procedure of impeachment, 88; scholars on power of, 83; veto power, 86
- Prime Minister of Canada: as advisor to Governor General, 172–3; impossibility to replace, 90; patronage of Senate by, 81; phenomenon of presidentialization, 90–1; political authority of, 80–1, 82, 112; political parties' role in constraining, 82; presidential power vs. power of, 91–2; public perception of elected status of, 79–80, 108; role in prorogation of Parliament, 172–3
- Prime Minister's Office (PMO), 235
- Prince Edward Island: elections to Legislative Council in, 185–6; position on Senate reform, 221
- property rights: Aboriginal people and, 38; in Canada, protection of, 41; Canadian Senate and, 38; government interventions into, 40; interpretations of, 39–40, 40n86; legislative incursion into, 38–9; in U.S. constitutional culture, 39
- prorogation of Parliament (2008): avoidance of vote of confidence as reason for, 111; background, 20, 111–12; governor's general

- decision on, 78, 108–9;
 - popular support of, 79n31
- prorogation of Parliament (2009):
 - background, 20–1; basis for, 158; as constitutional act, 117n17; initial request for, 116; public opinion on, 116–17
- public good: concept of, 127
- Quebec: authority of English Parliament in, 55–6; demands to expand jurisdiction of, 228; division of province of, 57, 58; resistance to establishing popular assembly in, 56–7; taxes and duties in colonial, 57n173
- Quebec Act, The (1774), 56, 57
- Quebec constitutional culture, 10
- Quebec Court of Appeal, 214–15, 229
- Quebec Liberal Party (QLP), 198
- Rahat, Gideon, 279
- Rakove, Jack, 14, 142n135, 143, 144
- Rathgeber, Brent, 103n151, 264
- Reagan, Ronald, 147, 253
- Reesor, David, 187
- Reform Acts, 123
- Reform Party of Canada:
 - constitutional reform initiatives, 5; platform on judicial confirmation hearings, 22; principles and policies, 201n124, 247; proposal on Senate reform, 21, 201–3; receptivity to American ideas, 21n79
- Rehnquist, William, 253
- republicanism, 44–5, 44n106
- Re Residential Tenancies Act (1981), 153
- Research Committee of the League for Social Reconstruction, 68–9, 194
- responsible government: in Canada, history of, 93, 93n98, 151, 188; in Canadian provinces, absence of, 150; Duhram's recommendations on, 59–60, 151; in media, absence of discussion on, 107; principle of, 20, 60n187, 119; scholars on system of, 153, 155, 184
- Riddell, Tory, 244
- Riddell, William Renwick, 71, 72
- rights of accused persons, 18–19, 18n73
- Riley, Jonathan, 14
- Ringhand, Lori, 257
- Roberts, John, 85, 255
- Romanow, Roy, 195
- Romney, Paul, 70n240
- Rothstein, Marshall: appointment to Supreme Court, 240, 264; newspaper reporting on, 262*fig*; nomination hearing, 239n27, 279n227; personality of, 278
- royal prerogative, 165–7, 168–9, 170. See also prerogative power
- Rush, Mark, 40n86
- Russell, John Russell, Lord, 60
- Russell, Peter, 23, 78, 101, 173, 243
- Said, Edward, 17
- Saskatchewan: position on consultative elections, 220; social democratic government in, 67
- Saul, John Ralston, 45–6, 47
- Scalia, Antonin, 40
- Schmitt, Carl, 126n57
- Schneiderman, David, 250
- Schwartz, Mildred, 14n53

self-rule: as dream of periphery, 20n78

Senate expense scandal, 176, 176n2

Senate of Canada: administrative structure of, 189; appointments to, 176, 177, 190, 191n71, 223n224; Australian Senate as model for, 179–80; Bill C-60 on reform of, 196–7; bills rejected by, 192, 192n77; business lobby in, 194; as a chamber of “sober second thought,” 188; checking functions of, 195; delays of legislation by, 193; disadvantages of elected, 198; executive councils as predecessors of, 181–2; initiatives to reform, 177–8, 178n11, 180–1; John Macdonald on authority and design of, 188–9; non-partisan appointment process to, 229; origin of, 28–9, 180, 181–2; popular view of, 177n3; position of provinces on abolition of, 221; possibility of deadlock and, 190; Prime Minister's patronage of, 81; proprieted interests represented in, 191–2; property rights and, 38, 193–4; qualifications of candidates to, 189, 256; regional representation in, 193; reputation of, 211; restriction on introduction money bills, 189n60; review of Bill S-4 by, 212–13; role of political parties in appointments to, 191; Triple-E model, 178, 200;

use of veto by, 192, 193. See also Legislative Council

Senate reform: constitutional convention and, 225n230; efforts of non-constitutional, 226; failure of constitutional proposals for, 228; gridlock as plausible outcome of, 180–1, 232; Harper government plans for, 211–12, 225; popular view of, 230–1; potential impact on constitutional design, 231–2; questions to Supreme Court of Canada on, 215–16; Reform Party proposal of, 201–3; role of provincial governments in, 227; scholarly research on, 21; Supreme Court decision on, 222–3

Senate Reform Act (Bill C-7), 177, 214, 214n187

separation of powers: in Canada, Justice La Forest on, 154; characteristic of, 29–30; between judicial and other branches, 154; Levellers on, 124; Madison on, 35–6; vs. mixed regime, 123–4; Montesquieu on, 120, 131; in political thought, 119; Speaker Milliken on breach of, 164; studies of, 118–20

Shaftesbury, Anthony Ashley Cooper, Lord, 129

Sheafer, Tamir, 279

Siegel, Reva, 13

Simons, Paula, 101

Simpson, Jeffrey, 191

Skocpol, Theda, 66

Skowronek, Stephen, 147

Smith, David, 180, 193, 205n143

Smith, Denis, 90

Smith, Goldwin, 31, 71
 Smith, Peter, 44, 45
 Smith, William, 54
 Snow, Dave, 79, 94, 98
 Songer, Donald, 244
 South Africa: nomination of judges to Constitutional Court, 282–3 sovereignty: idea of popular, 35n56
 spatial leadership, 90
 Spill, Rorie, 258, 259
Spirit of the Laws (Montesquieu), 15
 Stamp Act (1765), 51
 Stepan, Alfred, 28
 Straw, Jack, 168
Summary of Colonial Law, A (Clark),
 58
 Supreme Court of Canada: on application of Human Rights Act to Parliament, 161n238, 162n239; appointment of amici curiae by, 221, 222;
 composition of, 245,
 245n52; conservative
 thinkers' view of, 250–1;
 controversy over Justice
 Nadon nomination to,
 234–5; criticism of mechanism of appointment to, 228–39; decision-making process, 32n44, 238;
 decision on Senate reform, 222–3, 231; Harper on accountability mechanisms for justices of, 234; law clerks' role in, 249–50;
 media reporting of, 259–60, 260n136; nomination
 hearings, 239, 239n27;
 non-ideological and apolitical nature of, 237; opinion on separation of powers, 154n202; opinion on Trudeau's proposal on nomination of senators, 229–30, 230n251; popular view of, 242; Quebec
 federalism disputes in, 238;
 Quebec Secession
 Reference, 221; questions on consultative elections addressed to, 218; questions on Senate reform addressed to, 215–16; Reform Party's criticism of, 248; role in Canadian public life, 235–6, 236n8; ruling on declaration of independence of Quebec, 215; ruling on federal capacity to abolish or replace Senate, 197–8;
 ruling on Nadon's nomination, 277; on separation of powers, 154;
 Special Committee on Bill
 S-4, 216; studies of, 240–1,
 249–50; Upper House
 Reference, 219, 219n204
 Supreme Court of Canada
 appointment process:
 benefits of, 263, 263n148;
 Canadian Bar Association on political favouritism in, 242; in comparative perspective, 280–6;
 empirical studies of, 242–3,
 244–5; improved quality of, 243; opposition to parliamentary review of candidates, 252; political affiliation of judges and, 243, 243n20; politicization of, 242, 258, 272; Prime Minister's role in, 241;
 prospects for improvement,
 286; qualifications of judges,
 245; Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights'

- report on, 246–7. See also media coverage
- Supreme Court of Canada nomination hearings: description of procedure of, 263–4; focus on language during, 271–2; gender controversy, 273–5, 273n203; Karakatsanis/Moldaver joint hearing, 261n144, 264, 266; law vs. politics in, 267–8; Nadon hearing, 264, 267; questions to candidates, 266; research methodology of, 261–3, 261n142, 262n146; Rothstein hearing, 261n144, 264, 265, 266; timing between appointment and, 264–5; Wagner hearing, 264, 265, 267, 268
- Swift, Jamie, 118n22, 206
- Taché, Etienne, 186
- Tassé, Roger, 199n114
- Tawney, R.H., 292
- Thatcher, Margaret, 90, 92
- Thomas, Clarence, 254, 254n106, 255
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 12, 207
- Todd, Alpheus, 110
- Toronto Star*, 79, 100, 101, 104n155, 106, 278n223
- Toronto Sun*, 261, 274, 277, 278
- Tory touch thesis, 42–3
- Travers, Jim, 101, 106
- Tripe-E Senate proposal, 200
- Trotter, Reginald George, 191n71
- Trudeau, Justin, 229, 229n247
- Trudeau, Pierre Elliott, 80, 191, 196
- Truman, Harry, 87
- Tsebelis, George, 86
- Turnbull, Lori, 81
- Tushnet, Mark, 5
- unilateral federal amendments, 224
- unitary executive: concept of, 146, 147
- United Kingdom: constitutional tradition, 6; establishment of new Supreme Court, 284; evolution of colonial policy, 54–5, 55n158; House of Lords, 121, 192, 211n172; judicial appointment process in, 283–4; legitimacy of judges in, 285; Montesquieu on constitutional system of, 131; parliamentary practices in, 89, 93n98; power of Prime Minister in, 89, 89n79; prorogation of Parliament by Charles II, 129; role of Lord Chancellor, 283–4, 285; role of monarch in political system of, 110
- United States: barriers to socialism in, 65–6, 66n218; constitutional tradition of, 6; decline of federal power in, 70n240; establishment of democracy in, 54–5; executive power in, 25, 85n57; federalism in, 69–70; range of political ideas in, 68n232; scholars on constitutional democracy in, 8; separation of powers in, 85–6
- Upper House Reference, 215–16, 219, 219n204
- U.S. Congress: legislative process in, 210; presidential authority and, 86, 147–8; probability of conflict between chambers in, 209–10
- U.S. Constitution: amending formula, 224; on congressional authority, 64, 64n210; vs. English constitution, 24; as

- "inclusive" project, 19; link to British model, 37; Madison on attachment of bill of rights to, 36; main principles of, 33–4; possibilities for political change under, 65; on presidential power, 37, 146–7; on property rights, 39, 65–6; replacement of Articles of Confederation by, 33; on role of upper chamber, 36; on separation of powers, 35; Seventeenth Amendment to, 204
- U.S. constitutional culture: divided government in, 209; foundation of, 19; legislative output in, 209; nature of, 290–1; presidential authority in, 87–8; property rights in, 39; role of courts, 145–6, 239n28; veto players in, 208–9, 209n166
- U.S. Senate: authority of, 204–5; as elite of the nation, 207; House of Lords as model for, 206; legislative function of, 204; Madison on, 205n143; Philadelphia Convention's deliberations on, 203, 203n128; principle of "equal suffrage" in, 203; purpose of, 205; representation of states in, 84–5, 203–4; Tea Party's efforts to change process of election to, 207
- U.S. Senate confirmation hearings, 252–3
- U.S. Supreme Court: decision on Affordable Care Act, 85; federal authority and, 69–70, 85; judicial appointments to, 21, 253, 256, 260; media coverage of decisions of, 259; nomination process, 253–5, 255n109, 256–8, 257n122; popular perception of, 258–9; public attention to nominations to, 257
- Verba, Sidney, 12
- Vermeule, Adrian, 85n57
- veto power, 86
- Wagner, Claude, 273, 273n193
- Wagner, Richard: announcement of nomination to Supreme Court, 264; on application of law, 268, 268n173; newspaper reporting on, 262*fig*, 274, 276, 278*fig*; nomination hearing, 239n27, 280; rapid career of, 273
- Wallace, Donald, 69
- Wallin, Pamela, 176
- Walsh, Rob, 159, 160, 161–2
- Walters, Mark, 225, 227, 227n235
- "war on terror" policies, 148n171
- Warren, Earl, 18
- Watson, William, 68
- Webster, Noah, 204
- welfare: use of term in imperial statutes, 46n115
- Wenzel, Nikolai, 15n55
- West, Steve, 248
- Weston, Corrine, 121
- Wetstein, Matthew E., 244
- Whyte, John: on constitutional reform initiatives, 195, 228; on imbalance of power between houses of parliament, 231n253; on impact of consultative elections on government, 226; on political order, 292; on

Prime Minister's nominating power, 223n224

Willis, John, 29n20

Wilson, James, 144

Wilson, Woodrow, 145

Winnipeg Free Press, 261, 274, 276

Wise, S.F., 43

Wolinetz, Steven, 90

Wood, Gordon, 53n152

Wright, Nigel, 176n2

Wrong, George, 178

Young, Ernest, 14

Ziegel, Jacob, 243

Ziff, Bruce, 41